

MIDDLE SCHOOL LANGUAGE ARTS CURRICULUM

The curriculum consists of a program of creative writing, grammar, spelling and vocabulary study for the improvement of reading comprehension. Mrs. Robinson, the language arts goddess, loves to read and hopes to instill that love to her students. The students are exposed to all genres of literature and new authors so they might discover a new genre/author that they would also love to read.